Principal Report Miss Pesce=s report:

A very busy year coming to a close. A special thank to the PFA for all the work they did this year for the school. Looking forward to next year. Recent items that Miss Pesce mentioned-- The curtain that the PFA purchased for the All Purpose Room. 6 new Amplifications systems—they will be disturbed to the teachers that need them the most.

Miss Pesce once again thanked all the parents for their support for this year.

Goodbye to all the parents that are moving on to from River Plaza School this year.

A discussion occurred in regards to full day kindergarten coming to River Plaza at t his time Miss Pesce said there would be a town meeting on Tuesday, June 16th .

As of now she reported that All “Title 1” schools will receive Full Day Kindergarten. All “Title 2” schools will receive AM/PM sessions. Special needs will receive full day program.

More information was going to be reported by the end of the week and parents would be able to find out then.

Committee’s Report

Meredith Platze handed out an updated committee list. There were some main committee’s that have not been filled as of the afternoon.

Holiday Shoppe, Jump Rope for Hearts. Varsity Show, PIC, SED, Theater Week and most important Spring Fling.

A discussion took place that as of now we don’t have someone to run the Spring Fling. Other ideas have been suggested. This will be discussed at the September’s PFA meeting.
