Senior Internship Overview Middletown North & Middletown South

What is it?

Senior Internship, is an unpaid internship that allows students to apply their personal talents through collaborative and creative thinking, problem solving and the development of the skills and integrity necessary to become active participants of society outside the boundaries of their formal educational program. The experience will provide the impetus for inspiration, giving seniors workspace knowledge and opportunity for career exploration.

Time Frame

- Every Friday from April 20 - May 11, and Monday through Thursday from May 14 - June 14:
- The Friday of senior prom, TBA, will require mandatory school attendance if the student intern is attending prom.
- Students attending prom must also be present in school for the Rude Awakening Assembly (date TBA).
- Student athletes will be given an excused absence and will be able to participate in athletic events and practices with a signed attendance log from internship supervisor.
- Career Internship Presentation at Senior Awards Night (date TBA).
- All dates are tentative
